PROFESSIONAL PLACEMENT SERVICES

AMARRecruit

As a fully owned entity of the Australian Medical Association in Western Australia, AMARRecruit understands the responsibility of recruiting for the medical industry and applies professional and ethical principles across all recruitment activities.

AMARRecruit provides a specialist recruitment service to hospitals, private medical practices, allied health professionals and not-for-profit health and community organisations. With over 20 years experience and comprehensive networks, a professional service is provided at competitive rates.

We understand the needs of the healthcare and community services sectors. Our staff can quickly and expertly promote and market the jobs available and locate applicants with the skills you need – people who will be an asset to your business, practice or hospital. If you need healthcare or administrative personnel, AMARRecruit can provide them quickly and professionally.

- Our recruitment and placement services include:
 - > Advertising and marketing
 - > Searching our established database of registered applicants
 - > Interviewing and pre-screening
 - > Short-listing of candidates for employer interviews
 - > Skills testing
 - > Reference checking
 - > Contract negotiations

AMARRecruit consultants provide a professional and personalised service to employers and candidates, introducing qualified applicants and ensuring your requirements are met with successful outcomes.

AMARRecruit provides a one stop shop for all your recruitment needs.

RECRUITMENT SERVICES

► Customised Strategies and Options

AMARrecruit is constantly advertising and interviewing candidates for positions with employers in areas such as medical, dental and allied health practices, aged care facilities, hospitals, mining companies and general business.

In filling positions, AMARrecruit may draw from its database of potentially suitable candidates or may advertise and promote the position through its network to attract people looking for a new job or a change in their career.

A professional recruitment and placement service is provided for:

- Nurses – registered and enrolled
- Allied healthcare professionals
- Paramedics – onshore and offshore
- Ambulance officers
- Occupational health & safety workers
- Hospital personnel
- Pharmacy assistants
- Dental assistants and hygienists
- Health sector business executives
- Medical practice managers
- Medical receptionists, secretaries, typists
- Medical practice bookkeepers
- Junior receptionists, trainees

AMARrecruit's consultants have a strong understanding of the staffing needs for practices, hospitals, community centres and organisations involved in the delivery of health and allied health services. Our commitment is to deliver a quality service, drawing on support and guidance from the Australian Medical Association (WA).

At AMARrecruit we provide tailored recruitment solutions
